
Likelihood categories are transparent screening assumptions, not observed failure probabilities.